A Living Memorial

THE SINGING TOWER, Lake Wales, Florida, was conceived and built by Edward Bok, whose body now lies entombed beneath this dream of marble. A carillon of sixty-one bells sends forth every evening at sunset, in marvelous tones of sweet melody, hymns of hope and good cheer. It is often called the Taj Mahal of America.

Memorials

The finest in art, music, literature, architecture, and sculpture portrays the heart throbs of a thousand generations as they sought to memorialize their heroes and loved ones. The Pyramids, Taj Mahal, Rheims, Saint Peter's and Westminster in the Old World; the Washington and Lincoln Memorials, the Bok Singing Tower, memorial highways, stadiums and monuments in the New World, all enrich life and remind us that we are the heirs of a great past.

Not only do we believe in God, and a future life of peace, happiness and beauty surpassing human conception; but we also feel that in remembering these worthy ones we are able to attain new heights and to challenge posterity to even greater accomplishments.

Let us remember, therefore, that while we gather to pay our parting tribute and to bring solace and comfort to the sorrowing, we have also come to consecrate ourselves anew to the great unfinished task of creating a better world.

Here in the sanctity of love and memory let us seek to sustain the relatives and close friends by the evidencing of faith and hope; to draw a little closer in friendship and understanding; to inspire the bereaved with greater courage for the days ahead; and to paint a memory picture that shall ever remain a source of comfort and strength.

TO MOTHER

There seems to be a holiday
Each year about this time
It's set aside for Mother
Which I really think is fine

Never could quite understand why one day they should choose When every day is Mothers day and yours the one I choose

Have looked the counters over such silly cards they print Don't see the sense in buying one 'cause I have'nt got a cent

So I thought a personal message would suit you to a tee And hope that you may realize I'm sending it with glee

To me there is no other no sweetheart, friend or brother, That gave life to one who cares
Like this lad does his Mother

This year no telephone or telegram can you expect Dear Mom As some ugly guy on yonder shore has caused the world to frown

But in times like these on bended knees I ask dear "God" to care for one that I love dearly Each day, each hour and yearly

And so Dear Mom remember this,
No matter where we be,
There will never be another Mom
Who could mean so much to me.
