FAMED KEARNS ORGAN OWNED BY RON

WALLS; ALSO OWNS NELSON HOME JOB

Ron Walls, midwest pizza parlor owner, owns the former Joe Kearns organ. The instrument was installed in the late actor's Hollywood, Calif., residence and purchased by Russel Nelson of Orange, Calif. Nelson sold this famous instrument and his own large four-manual Wurlitzer, that was installed in a poolside studio at his Santa Ana residence, to Walls. Both organs are still on the west coast pending Walls' decision where they will be used.
